'PLAYERS' TO HOLD AUDITIONS

THE Garrison Players will be holding auditions for their first presentation of the 1970 season at the Mariners Club, on December 4 at 8 p.m.

The presentation, "The Rattle of a Simple Man" is a comedy and involves only three characters. The parts call for two men and a woman.

A second audition is scheduled for late January for the play "Oh What a Lovely War". This presentation will require a large cast.

The Workshop section of the club will present two one-act plays at the Mariners Club on January 29.

The majority of the club members are engaged with rehearsals for the ever-popular Christmas pantomime. This year's presentation will be "Old Mother Hubbard" which will open at the City Hall on December 17.

NEW PLAY

STANDARD, 3-2-70

THE GARRISON Players, under the direction of Mr. Geoffrey Eden, will present a play, Rattle Of A Simple Man at the City Hall Theatre from Feb. 17 to 20.

Rattle Of A Simple Man was written by Charles Dyer, and first appeared in 1962 at the Garrick Theatre.

It is a story of a young man called Percy. Shy and inexperienced as a man, he takes up his friend's bet to take a prostitute to bed.

What ensues is comedy and pathos as Percy discovers that the prostitute is also lonely, and as human as he.

Tickets are now on sale at Harry Odell Producti at $5, $8, and $10.

RATTLE of A Simple Man, presented by the Garrison Players, will run from Feb. 17 to 20.

Erica Bridgeman is seen here slapping David Simpson. They play brother and sister in the play, and the scene is when brother accuses sister of being a prostitute, and hits upon the truth.

Tickets are now on sale at the Harry Odell Showbox in Alexandra House.
